- Essay must physically be in AIAC Office by 4:30 p.m. August 31, 2009.

APPLICATION FEE:

$150 Application Fee must be attached to the application. The application fee must be made out to the Miss Indian Alabama[®] Competition and must be either a certified check or money order (no other form of payment will be accepted).

Miss Indian Alabama[®] will be judged on the following:

1. Introduction

Each contestant will wear an evening gown of their own choosing and will choose an escort to bring her out. She will then give a brief (not more than 5 minute) introduction of herself and her escort.

2. Native Regalia

Each contestant will wear their Native Regalia and describe the history and detail of her garb.

3. Talent

Each contestant will perform a talent of their choosing (Example: Singing, Musical Instrument, Dancing, Storytelling, etc.)

4. Question

Each contestant will answer a question asked by the M.C.

5. Essay - In the event of a tie, essay will serve as a tie breaker.

Each contestant will submit a written essay of not less than 500 or more than 1,000 words. As the essay, please write a brief history of your tribe. The essay must be type written.

Essay deadline is August 31, 2009 by 4:30 p.m. (This essay will be scored on content, form and grammatical correctness.) The essay will contain a certification statement, signed by the contestant that this is her own work.

Five Judges will score the contestants on a 1 to 10 basis for each requirement. The judges will not collaborate with each other on their scores. The Judges' scores will then be tabulated and averaged and the contestant with the highest score will become Miss Indian Alabama[®]. In the case of a tie, the essay submitted with each Contestant's application will be used to determine the winner.

THE DECISION OF THE JUDGES IS FINAL.
